

ADVANCED MEDICAL INTERPRETING

ABOUT THE COURSE

This is a two-day, 16-hour course for American Sign Language (ASL) and Spoken Language Interpreters. This workshop will break down the interpreting process from start to finish to effectively work in a healthcare settings, including:

- Standards of practice, code of ethics, universal codes, informed consent;
- Interpreter roles and preparing for a medical assignment,
- Breaking down medical terminology & medical questions, the art of “giving report”,
- Strategies when medical assignments involve legal, mental health, child services or palliative care issues
- The mechanics of medical interpreting, and
- An introduction to a variety of medical settings (e.g. doctor’s office vs hospital settings)

WHEN IS IT?

Saturday, March 14, 2020 and Sunday, March 15, 2020

TIME: 9:00a - 5:00p, with an hour lunch break

WHERE: MUSC COMMUNITY TRAINING CENTER

1 South Park Circle, Suite 300
Charleston, SC 29407

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- ASL Interpreters interested in healthcare interpreting
- Certified Medical Interpreters looking for CEUs
- Any healthcare professional who wants to interpret in healthcare

WHAT DOES IT COST?

EARLY BIRD PRICING (Both Days): $125
(until 2/14/2020)

FULL PRICE (Both Days): $150

ONE DAY PRICING : $85 and you can attend either day.

Register at: <http://www.muschealth.org/interpreter/registration.html>

EARN CEU’S

1.4 CEUs will be offered for RID, CCHI, and IMIA certified interpreters.

WORKSHOP PRESENTERS

Heather Brown, M.S., PA-C, DFAAPA

Anna McDuffie, B.S., CI & CT, NIC, SC:L

Changing What’s Possible