

BRIDGING THE GAP: Basic to Intermediate Medical Interpreter Training

Would you like to put your bilingual skills to use?

Bridging the Gap is a 40-hour training program that prepares individuals to become qualified medical interpreters. This language-neutral course, taught in English, is open to speakers of all languages. Participants will learn the necessary skills to become a qualified medical interpreter.

WHAT IS COVERED IN THE COURSE?

- Basic Interpreting Skills
- Medical Terminology
- Anatomy and Physiology
- United States Healthcare System
- Culture and Communication
- Patient Advocacy
- Roles of the Interpreter
- Code of Ethics
- Standards of Practice

WHO SHOULD REGISTER?

Program participants should meet the following criteria:

- Fluent in English and one other language, including American Sign Language (ASL)
- Interested in medical interpreting
- Able to attend all six classes

WHEN IS IT?

Training Dates: (Friday/Saturday - 3 weeks)
October 9 & 10 | October 16 & 17 |
October 23 & 24 2020

Registration Deadline: April 3, 2020

Time: 9:00 am – 5:00 pm (each day) with hour lunch

WHERE?

MUSC Community Training Center
1 South Park Circle, Suite 300
Charleston, SC 29407

WHAT DOES IT COST?

Program cost is $675.00, including a non-refundable fee of $150 for oral language proficiency assessment, application processing fees, and all course materials.

To Apply

<http://www.muschealth.org/interpreter>

