

Nuts and Bolts: Building Your Medical Terminology

This virtual course (for any language pairing) is an introduction to the field of healthcare interpreting. In this course you will learn the structure and meaning of medical terminology, the elements that make the human body, and much more. This course can be taken separately as a stand alone course, or combined with our 40 hour interpreter training course, The Professional Interpreter.

.....

Course Topics

- Greek and Latin origins of terms
- Anatomy and physiology
- Diseases and disorders
- Symptoms
- Medical specialties & abbreviations
- The Medical Interview

Who Should Attend?

- Bilingual individuals who currently provide interpreter services, or plan to provide interpreter services.

Time and Date

- March 15 – April 23, 2021 (5 weeks)
- Tuesdays & Thursdays
- 6:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Location

- Zoom Meeting (Livestream)
- Link details provided upon acceptance to the program.

Cost

- $275.00
- Special price ($200.00) if you've completed, The Professional Interpreter

Register online at: MUSChealth.org/interpreter/registration

Changing what's possible